

"The love of beauty is taste. The creation of beauty is art"

Dear Nello,

For those that are closest to me it is a well known fact that I have never felt comfortable in my own skin. The question "do I look ok" is well used in my vocabulary! This may suggest vanity, but the feeling is much deeper than that.

On my wedding day, the last thing I needed was to be self conscious, or worry that the happiness and beauty that I felt inside wasn't reflected on the outside. I need not have worried!

The service that you provided was second to none. From the trial that we had the day before the wedding, I knew that I was in very good hands.

On the wedding day, I could not fault your services. I had no anxieties surrounding timings as we had agreed these the previous day, discussed what I wanted style wise and it all ran like clockwork.

My bridesmaids, who went first, were all very different in skin tone, hair colour and style. The final result, they all looked and felt fabulous! The one thing that stood out was that your make up artist didn't take a "one style suits all" approach. Each bridesmaid had make up applied that suited their own individuality, emphasising and highlighting their features.

The hairstyles that you created were fantastic, not your typical everyday updo! My original thought was something on the side, not too neat not too messy. After you worked your magic, the end product was more than I could have hoped for and the girls adored it!

As for me, well, I was left speechless! The make up was perfect, not too heavy, not too light, just perfect! A lot of emphasis had gone into my eye make up and they kind of jumped out at you, not with the amount of make up used, just my eyes - I loved it!

My hair styling...wow, I have never felt so elegant! Once again, I got more than I hoped for. My hair style was soft, wispy and romantic!

On this day, I never thought to ask if I looked ok, I didn't need to. You made me feel beautiful, relaxed and at ease with myself. For this I will remain eternally grateful.

I genuinely could not fault anything that you did that day Nello, I would highly recommend you to all.

Some say there's always room for improvement but for you I don't think that could ever be true, you and your team are masters of your craft!

This maybe the first direct thank you I have given you but in my heart, I have thanked you a million times over.

Kindest regards and wishes for a prosperous future.

Kelly.
