

Good Afternoon Nello/Sandy,

Thank you for your email and sorry for my delayed reply, I have just returned from our honeymoon. Your service was fantastic on the wedding day, I especially liked the English translator you had available as at first I think the guests were having a bit of trouble in conveying what they wanted, this was sorted once the lady arrived to translate well J I will make sure I leave a positive review for you on your website,

Thank you again so much!
